

Now: Generate more income
for your school's programs .
This little girl will show you how easy it is.

It's a free service
to your school
to support the good you do

Introducing:

Benebook

designed to free you
to do more good
because you have more money
with which to do it

It's a simple concept:

Your school already has staff - supporters - patrons
who buy books.

You just ask them to support you by buying at your special bookstore address.
(See example: charity.biblio.com/cain)

It's so easy to ask folks to help

From us you get promotional material where Benetta and her brother Benny ask your supporters to buy their books at www.charity.biblio.com/\(yourName\)). With 50+ million to choose among they should find everything they want!

To keep things easy we provide you with an ongoing flow of the promotional material you need: flyers, handouts, press releases, etc. to tell your story and ask for support.

Every month you get a check for 5% of what your supporters
bought last month.

It's that simple.

If you are ready to start generating additional income now, please call Brian Eastman at 513 853 6180.

Or if you just have some questions, call Brian Eastman now at 513 853 6180.

Please call now, won't you? No Obligation, just the opportunity to have more money to do the good things you do.

this program has been created
as a collaboration
of BooksForTheNeedy.com
and Biblio.com

Both organizations work to make the world a better place. And one way we can do this is by providing additional funding to charities and non-profits with quality programs.
